BLACK OLIVE BAR & GRILL ANNOUNCES SECOND BLOCK PARTY
July 27, 2018 – 5pm to 8pm

WHO: The Black Olive Bar & Grill, located at The National Conference Center, celebrates the summer by bringing the local neighborhood and community together with its second fun outdoor Block Party as part of the Summer Series event. The Black Olive Block Party was created to highlight the The Black Olive Bar & Grill as a community meeting place with great drinks and food. Locals are encouraged to become members of The Black Olive Club to receive discounts, promotions and invites to special events. There is no fee to be a Black Olive member.

WHAT: The beach themed event includes partnerships with local restaurants, wineries, and businesses. The Black Olive Block Party will feature:

- Live Caribbean music by Tobago Bay
- Summer wine tastings, including Sangria and local wines from 868, Dry Mill and Chrysalis with Chief Wine Officer, Mary Watson-Delauder
- Brewmasters from Solace Brewery, Old Ox, Loudoun Brewing Co. and Black Hoof Brewery will showcase their many new summer brews
- Cigars Under the Stars sponsored by cigar experts Old Virginia Tobacco
- Captain Cookie and The Milkman food truck and local restaurants, Sidebar and Delirium Café, will sell food, along with the Black Olive Bar & Grill.

Under the direction of Executive Chef Frank Estremera, Black Olive Bar & Grill's menu includes house made tacos with local pork belly, savory Mexican chocolate and poblano pepper brisket tacos, or Smoky Chipotle Chicken tacos with a variety of traditional toppings to compliment the chef's creations. The culinary team will also be creating a Peruvian style seafood cocktail made with the freshest local catch.
