WEST BELMONT PLACE CREATES THREE HOLIDAY PARTY THEMES Holiday Party Ideas and Incentives

LEESBURG, VA October, 2018 — West Belmont Place Event Center at The National Conference Center creates three corporate and family holiday party ideas to help companies and associations (big and small) give back to the community and help those less fortunate. In a year with so much attention on individuals' rights, The National shows what corporate social responsibility events can do for your team. The passion for giving back exists in every one; all you have to do is provide an opportunity for people to shine.

A great holiday party contains three important characteristics: atmosphere, decor and refreshments (food, beverage). No matter how large or small your holiday party is, if it is done in the spirit of giving, it is bound to be a great night that your employees will appreciate.

This year West Belmont Place offers 3 Unique Holiday Party Ideas complete with décor and activities that support a company's mission. For example, A Family Affair is perfect for the corporation or association that has a true family-work balance policy. Our culinary team will prepare a variety of sugar and gingerbread cookies for your staff and their families to decorate, creating a stress-free environment for parents and fun-filled day for the kids. See more on our blog.

The second party idea is Deck the Hall Green. The National and West Belmont Place holds the Green Seal™ Silver rating for more than 10 years, along with the Virginia Green™ certification. The National's Green Team, along with Food and Beverage Director, Todd Goldian, can create a hyper-local menu, along with a trip to one of Loudoun County's Christmas Tree Farms, concluding with a sing-along with one of our local choral clubs around the fire pits while toasting marshmallows for S'mores. See more on our blog.

There is no better team building then helping others. We work closely with many local non-profits and can help a planner find the cause that fits your corporate mission. It could be sorting toys for the Salvation Army's Toys for Tots, which is housed at The National or it could be putting together food baskets or emergency kits for one of the many shelters and non-profits in Loudoun County. See more on our blog.

And addition incentives are available for event planners who book a holiday party by November 10th:

- An interactive dessert station.
- Complimentary ice sculpture with your company logo.
- Complimentary Champagne toast at reception or dinner.
- Two complimentary hors d'oeuvres.

If the contract is $5,000, one incentive can be added; $10,000 contract, two incentives can be added and $15,000 contract, three incentives can be added.

Whatever your mission or thoughts for a holiday party, we are here to make your event a success and something meaningful to your staff. Call our catering department at (703) 724-5650 or email sales@conferencecenter.com today for more ideas and a site tour.
