Job Fair to be Held at The National Conference Center on April 12 Adding more than 50 Opportunities due to Phenomenal Growth

LEESBURG, Virginia, March 30, 2017 — The National Conference Center announced that it will be holding a job fair on Wednesday, April 12 at West Belmont Place (18980 Upper Belmont Place, Leesburg, Va. 20176) in Belmont A & B from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The National is one of the largest and most comprehensive conference centers in the nation. Created for large conferences, corporate meetings, planning sessions and executive education, this multipurpose event venue was designed especially for training and professional development. The National offers unique, individualized meeting communities where conference rooms and guest lodging are grouped in self-contained wings to optimize opportunities for collaboration and camaraderie.

The National has full time, part time and seasonal employment opportunities. Available positions include cooks, bartender, plumber, stewards, custodians, bell person, housekeepers, banquet servers, restaurant/bar/club manager, front desk clerk, stationary engineers, event set up workers, cocktail bar servers, administrative assistant, maintenance service workers, food service buffet attendants and stewarding supervisor.

The property's goal is to invite 50 new team members to be a part of The National's future success.

The National has a competitive benefits package that includes medical, dental, vision, STD/LTD, 401K and life insurance. The company provides paid time off including sick, holiday, personal and vacation. The National Conference Center is an equal opportunity employer supporting diversity in all of the property's business practices.
